DANISH LUTHERAN CHURCH † BÆRER HVERANDRES BYRDER

In a Danish supermarket, someone had put up a sign that read: "We know it's only September, the sun is shining, and it's warm outside. But we didn't decide to put Christmas goods on the shelves already, so would you please stop complaining about it to Jette at check-out number one? She's already had 371 comments about it!"

After a lovely late summer, we are now heading into winter and Christmas really is approaching. So we can start talking about it without getting on anyone's nerves! In this issue of our newsletter, you will find plenty of good reasons to come to church to celebrate Christmas and enjoy some of the Danish Christmas traditions.

We also mix in traditions from other cultures and there is good precedent for that in Christianity, which is, after all, a worldwide religion! Danish nisser (Christmas elves), æbleskiver and pebernødder, a Lucia procession from Sweden, Finnish Christmas Carols, English Christmas Caroling and the German Advent wreath. Christmas is a wonderful blend of secular and religious traditions, inspired by many different cultures.

In our home, Danish Christmas traditions have the upper hand, even though my husband is German. He is always the one who prepares the Danish Christmas dinner, since I am busy at church on December 24 and he does a good job! My own responsibilities have been reduced to making the caramelized potatoes and setting the table.

Every year, he suggests that we switch to celebrating Christmas the German way. In Germany, he tells me, they always had sausages and potato salad on Christmas Eve. It was supposed to be a simple meal because the Christ Child was born into poverty. That would certainly be an easier menu for him to prepare!

Every year, however, the family has politely but firmly declined his suggestion. We celebrate a Danish Christmas with roast duck, roast pork, potatoes (caramelized and boiled), gravy, red cabbage, and either risalamande or rice pudding.

On Christmas Eve, I have often wondered how quickly such a meal can disappear compared with the time it takes to prepare it. Fortunately, in Denmark we also have a tradition of lingering over our meals, enjoying one another's company, and sharing good conversation.

The Christmas Bazaar

Christmas is also the season for the church bazaar!

We will open the doors on November 28th at noon in Riverbend Community League's Main Hall.

The bazaar is a little like Christmas dinner: a great deal of preparation goes into it beforehand. They started when it was still summer, before the supermarkets had Christmas goods on the shelves. Many people have helped with the planning, found a venue, set up tables, and arranged the goods for sale. Many have baked, collected donations, prepared smørrebrød and made all sorts of things to sell. No names mentioned, no one forgotten!

When the day of the bazaar finally arrives and the doors open, all that preparation is over in just a few busy hours, with everything happening at a fast pace.

A Message from the Board

Hello Everyone!

This fall has brought us many sunny days. It was welcomed after a very wet summer. The mild weather gave us time to get the gutters cleaned and the windows washed at both the Church and the Parsonage.

Thank you to the Ansgar Danish Women's Group for putting on a delicious duck and turkey dinner for us. It was sold out and so much appreciation goes to the organizers and volunteers who made this fundraiser happen.

We encourage you to donate new socks and mittens/gloves for Operation Friendship. Also, the Food Bank box in the basement has lots of room for more donations.

Check out the Calendar for all the upcoming events including Bazaar, Traveling Advent, Christmas Caroling, Santa Lucia and Candlemas.

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

Deacon's helpers needed on Sundays. Any help with deacon duties such as washing the communion cups, making coffee and tea, serving food, taking the soiled towels/tablecloths home to launder.

Basement & Kitchen upgrades: Once we determine how to deal with the excessive moisture in the basement floor, we will need help removing the benches before new flooring in the main room can be installed. The kitchen design is more complicated as we need to decide on the best use of space and functionality. Contact Mette Rasmussen (780-716-4801).

Empty lot & City Infill changes: Will the revised infill plan give us more leeway for parking on our empty lot? Angela Moroz is on the alert for any changes. We need designs for a two-dwelling unit – perhaps the main floor could be used for the pastor's office or other events (but designed as a one-bedroom apartment) and the second floor may be a 2-bedroon apartment with a 3-pc bathroom on each floor. We need maximum parking on the lot and basement is not needed. Once a design is approved by the majority, we can present it to the city in the new year. Contact Mette Rasmussen (780-716-4801).

Board members needed: We are currently short one member and may need others after our February ACM. Meetings are held once per month (excluding July) either on a Tuesday evening or Sunday afternoon during the winter. Please join us at a meeting to see what it's all about or speak to a current board member for more information.

Merry Christmas / Glædelig Jul!

Ansgar Group Activities

DANISH WOMEN'S GROUP

The Fall season began with some fun…a Danish Christmas Baking Workshop for beginners. Three adults and three girls and one boy baked up a storm in the Church Basement on September 25th, making Kransekage Logs, Jødekager, and Finskbrød. Some real talent was evident and the results were delicious! We hope we may have discovered some new bakers for the Christmas Bazaar in late November. Many "thanks" to the volunteer baking coaches: Inge Fenger-Andersen, Else Woller and Birthe Nielsen.

The Fall Harvest Dinner on October 16 was sold out early this year, with 56 people enjoying the delicious duck and turkey thanksgiving dinner. It is always an evening of shared talk and laughter with family and friends, happy with the delicious meal and the good company. This is one of the traditional fundraising activities for the Women's Group in support of Ansgar Church operations. In addition to thanking the volunteers who do the work required to put on this event, we want to thank all of you who purchased tickets. Your support of the Church in this way is key to our success.

We now start preparing for the annual Christmas Bazaar on November 28th. NEWS FLASH! The Bazaar will be held at Riverbend Community Hall this year. (Calder Hall is closed for construction at this time, so we have been forced to relocate.) The hall is located at 258 Rhatigan Road East, adjoining a school in the Riverbend district. It is easily accessible off Whitemud Drive and Terwilliger Drive and there is ample parking available. We will feature Danish baking, some Christmas crafts, and those delicious Danish open-faced sandwiches (smørrebrød)! Entrance is still free and doors open at 12:00 pm. Come and bring some family or friends, have a look around and enjoy a tasty Danish lunch!!

If you can't make the Bazaar, remember to check out the Ansgar website at https://www.ansgar.ca/ for the Christmas On-Line Bake Sale. We sell Danish Christmas specialties there too. Look for the ad in this Newsletter.

The Women's Group meetings are on the fourth Tuesday of the month, at 10:00 am, from September to April, in the Church basement. We are both a social group, enjoying the company of many Church friends, as well as a working group, raising funds to support our Church's operation. If that sounds like you, you are welcome. Remember to bring your own lunch. Any changes in meeting or event dates are posted in the Newsletter Calendar. For further information, contact Jeanna Baty at 780-474-4254

HYGGEKLUBBEN

Hyggeklubben continues through our shared efforts, but if you would like to take on the responsibility for organizing the club, please let Pastor Jane know.
We meet in the church basement on the third Wednesday of each month from 12–2 pm for a shared meal. Everyone brings a small dish to share. We help one another set the table, make coffee, and clean up afterwards. Sometimes we have a program, a talk, or something similar; other times we simply enjoy each other's company, talk, and sing together.
November 18: Winter songs and fairy tales
December 16: Christmas hygge

CHAT'N'CRAFT

On November 4th Chat'n'Craft will be hosted by Kirsten and Jeanna. Come to 11219-51 Street at 1:30 pm. Additional parking spaces available on a pad in the back alley, marked by an orange flag. We will have the last Chat'n Craft for this year on December 2nd. Welcome to a cozy afternoon at 1:30 pm in the parsonage. Bring snacks, cake or fruit to share and whatever craft project you are working on.
Pastor Jane

MEN'S BREAKFAST CLUB

We will meet again on November 14th and in December we will get together on the 5th at 10:00 am.

We meet once a month to discuss the state of the world, share some bread and act constructively for the church. Call Werner at 780-655-3227 for more information.

THE ANSGAR SINGERS

The choir will participate in the All Saints' Service on November 1st.

For more information or if you are interested in becoming a choir member, please contact Eija Aalto at eijaalto@gmail.com

A heartfelt thank-you to all the volunteers who make the bazaar possible! It provides a valuable contribution towards the running costs of Ansgar Danish Lutheran Church, offers a lovely opportunity to meet and enjoy a few hours together and helps keep Danish food and Christmas traditions alive here in Edmonton.
The volunteers who keep our church running and make the bazaar happen do an enormous amount of valuable work. But they are also getting older, and their numbers are gradually decreasing. We need more helping hands to carry these traditions forward. We risk becoming too few and too vulnerable to manage all the tasks that need to be done.

So, I hope that if you are not already involved in helping the church, you will consider what you might be able to contribute to our community. Figuratively speaking, you do not have to prepare the whole meal yourself. Perhaps you can help by making the caramelized potatoes or setting the table? What can you offer to help ensure that we can continue to have a Danish church and keep Danish traditions alive here in Edmonton?

Whatever the case, I hope to see many of you in church throughout Advent and the Christmas season, as we once again gather to celebrate and rejoice in the coming of the Holy Child into the world on Christmas night in Bethlehem.

Merry Christmas! Glædelig Jul!
Pastor Jane Sognstrup

Sunday, December 13 at 3:00 pm
we will celebrate a family service, beginning with a Santa Lucia procession.

We hope you will bring your children and let them take part in the Lucia singing and procession together with the choir. Please come half an hour before the service, so that we can find the right costumes for the children and practice the song together.

After the service, we will enjoy some Christmas hygge with æbleskiver and gløgg or coffee, as well as Christmas crafts for the children.

We are looking for volunteers willing to spend about 2 hours on the 2nd Thursday of each month to help with this worthwhile cause.
